COUNT ONE - INFRINGEMENT OF
U.S. PATENT NO. 8,625,758

20. Brazos re-alleges and incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

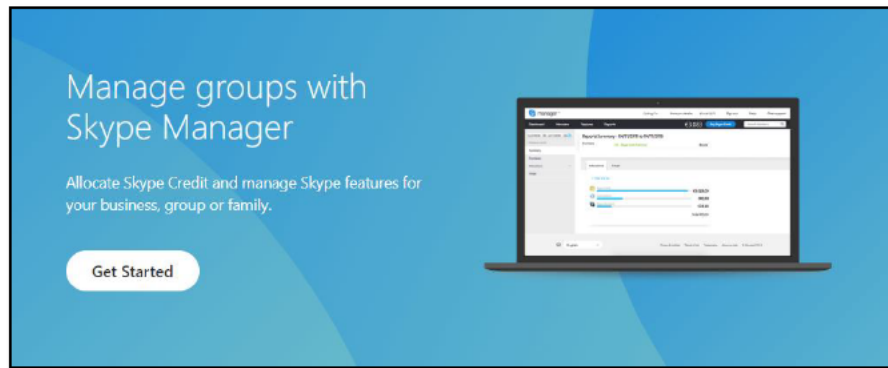

21. On January 7, 2014, the United States Patent and Trademark Office duly and legally issued U.S. Patent No. 8,625,758 (“the ’758 Patent”), entitled “Method, a Telecommunication System and a Network Node for Sponsoring a Communication Service.” A true and correct copy of the ’758 Patent is attached as Exhibit A to this Complaint.

22. Brazos is the owner of all rights, title, and interest in and to the ’758 Patent, including the right to assert all causes of action arising under the ’758 Patent and the right to any remedies for the infringement of the ’758 Patent.

23. Microsoft makes, uses, sells, offers for sale, imports, and/or distributes in the United States, including within this judicial district, products such as, but not limited to, group meeting platform managers, including Microsoft Skype Manager (collectively, the “Accused Products”).

24. Microsoft’s Skype is a telecommunications application and platform that provides video chat and voice calls between computers, tablets, mobile devices, the Xbox One console, and smartwatches via the Internet. Skype also provides instant messaging services. Users may transmit text, video, audio, and images. Skype Manager is a web-based management tool that allows an administrator centrally manage Skype for a business, including setting up business Skype accounts for employees, keeping track of costs, allocating features, and monitoring Skype usage.

25. The Accused Products allow a business to sponsor the communications conducted by employees with Skype accounts on the Skype service. The administrator using the Accused Products handles buying credit and features instead of the employees themselves.

The image shows a promotional graphic for Skype Manager with three columns of benefits, each accompanied by a small image: a group of people working, a hand holding a smartphone, and a person at a computer. Below the columns is a 'Get Started' button.

26. An administrator can use the Accused Products to add credits to the business's account and allocate these credits to the employees.

The image is a screenshot of a user guide page titled '5.0 Skype Credit'. It contains text about purchasing and allocating credit, a link to '6.1 Credit allocations', and a section '5.1 Finding your Skype Manager credit balance'. At the bottom, there is a screenshot of the Skype Manager toolbar showing a credit balance of $95.05 and buttons for 'Buy Skype Credit' and 'Search Members'.

5.0 Skype Credit

Before allocating credit or features to members of your Skype Manager for the first time, you need to buy Skype Credit for your Skype Manager. It's easy to buy Skype Credit in Skype Manager. You can pay for Skype Credit using a credit card, PayPal and lots of other ways. Once you have bought some Skype Credit, you can allocate it to your members for calling or use it to buy features to allocate to your members.

If you want to learn more about how to allocate Skype Credit to your members, please see 6.1 Credit allocations.

27. After purchasing the credits, an administrator can allocate different features to the employees. Whenever an employee uses communication service (e.g. makes a call), a request is generated for the employee if respective features and credits are available for the employee to establish the communication service.

- Allocate Skype Credit

Buy Skype Credit centrally and then allocate it to your employees as needed. Monitor their expenditure and usage with reports that can be generated at a company, departmental or employee level.

- Allocate features

Give your employees the tools they need to collaborate and work smarter. Buy and allocate features like subscriptions, group video calling, Online Numbers, call forwarding and voicemail.

All products are pre-paid giving you flexibility over how you manage your company's expenditure on Skype and for many features, you can decide whether to be billed monthly, quarterly or annually.

Skype Manager is the simple way to manage Skype in your business.

28. Under the Member's Allocations sections, an administrator using the Accused Products can view the services and features allocated to respective employees. These services and features help in evaluating different charges incurred by the business in sponsoring the cost of services allocated to employees, and the rules allowing access to particular employees for individual services can be dynamically accessed and adjusted.

7.4 Displaying a Member's Allocations report

This report provides a detailed list of the features allocated to a specific member in a given month. This report is particularly useful if you want to find out which features have been allocated to a member and how much it has cost.

<https://download.skype.com/share/business/guides/skype-manager-user-guide.pdf>

29. As an example, an employee will be charged differently if they call mobile and landline number services for different countries. Thus, the different credit amounts will be deducted from the given credits of the business as the calls occur.

Call mobile and landline numbers

Say hello, even if your friends and family aren't on Skype. Get affordable international calling to mobiles and landlines anytime – day or night. It's amazing how little it costs to call people on the other side of the world, or just across town.

With low domestic and international calling rates, and no peak times, you can talk to those who matter most, whenever you want.

Pay for calls to mobile and landline numbers with Skype Credit or, if you call international numbers regularly, you could save even more with a subscription.

30. Similarly, online text messaging communication service has different charges than phone and landline number services. Thus, the business will be charged differently if an employee uses different services.

Online Texting Rates

You'll need Skype Credit to send text messages at really low rates. SMS text message rates vary by where the phone is that you're texting. Try Skype for a month free and see how easy it is to send online texts. Plus, there are many ways to pay for Skype and they vary by country. You'll love texting online with Skype. Text from anywhere via the Skype app on your phone or on your desktop. It works on every device and is available for Windows, OSX, iPhone, iPad, Android, Xbox or in your browser.

32. An administrator using the Accused Products allocates credits to employees, who can be group members. The group members incur charges based on the services used. An administrator can analyze detailed usage of services by the employees with the help of member usage reports where they can see the charging records based on the usage by the employees.

7.6 Displaying a Member's Usage report
